

corrections of Frederick county, who shall collect and receive all monies appropriated by the county commissioners for the use and benefit of the almshouse and for the support and maintenance of persons committed to the jail of Frederick county, and all sums of money arising from the sale of the products raised on the farm connected with the almshouse, or due or owing to said commissioners of charities and corrections from any other source.

15. If any keeper or overseer of said almshouse, or any officer or member of said commissioners of charities and corrections, shall neglect or refuse, for the space of thirty days after the expiration of his term of office, or after being removed from his office, to surrender and deliver up to his successor in office any property, money, books or effects of any kind in his possession as such officer or member, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction in a court of law, shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars and imprisoned in the county jail for not less than two years; but nothing herein contained shall bar any civil suit that might be maintained for the recovery of such property, money or effects.

16. The treasurer, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall execute a bond payable to the said commissioners of charities and corrections, with sufficient securities approved by them in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned as follows, to wit: "the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound A. B. shall well and faithfully discharge the duties of treasurer of the commissioners of charities and corrections of Frederick county, and shall well and faithfully account for all monies that shall come into his hands as treasurer, and pay over the said monies to the person legally authorized to receive the same, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in law."

Ibid.

17. The treasurer shall not pay out any of the funds that shall come into his hands, unless by written order of said commissioners of charities and corrections.
